The Journal of Management and Business Sciences (JOMBS) is a non-profit journal that has an International Editorial Board specialised on their field. An Open Access Online Journal Volume 1 Issue 1 under ISSN number (ISSN : 2791-1055) provides a valuable outlet for research and scholarship on management-orientated themes and topics with the primary goal to be a prestigious journal which contributes to scientific knowledge.

In order to keep these purposes, it publishes articles of a multi-disciplinary sections on Business Management, Human Resources and Public Administration as well as empirical research from within traditional disciplines and managerial functions. With contributions from around the globe, the journal includes articles across the full range of business and management disciplines. It strictly depends on the scientific principles of peer reviewed rules and ethical framework. Based on these principles, JOMBS accepted blind peer reviewed papers which are appropriate to its scientific purpose, scope and fields while inappropriate submitted articles are kindly rejected.

JOMBS welcome you to Volume 1 Issue 1, comprising 10 peer reviewed articles under Business Management, Human Resources and Public Administration.

JOMBS expresses deep appreciations and gratitude to the authors, reviewers, and our readers for their collaborations in this magnitude fountain of knowledge as we encourage everyone to read, think and write.

Sincerely Yours'
